"There is a singular race of people in South Carolina called the Redbones," said Sonator Wade Hampton. "Their origin is unknown. They resemble in appearance the gypsies, but in complexion they are red. They have accumulated considerable property and are industrious and peaceable. They live in small settlements at the foot of the mountains, and associate with none but their own race. They are a proud and high-spirited people. Caste is very strong among them. They enjoy life, visit the watering-places and mountain resorts, but cat and keep by themselves.

TOPEKA, KAN., Nov. 5.—Eighty-two thousand Republican majority has been overcome. The Farmers' Alliance did it, and it was a genuine surprise. The chances for the Democrats gaining in some districts was bright, but no such overturning. Republican majorities was expected. For the first time in many years the Republican delegation is broken. The Farmers' Alliance and the Democrats waged a bitter campaign against. Senator Ingalls, whose term expires in 1891, and in a majority of the districts sustained one of their candidates against the Republican candidate. The result is the certain election of ninety-five Farmers' Alliance and Democratic legislators against thirty Republicans. Some of the latter may vote for Ingalls, but his opponents claim that even then there would be a majority of six against him.

the district are foranyille, Forsyth, Rockingham, Caswell, Person, Stokes, Surry, and Guilford. Brower, who has represented the district for two terms, failed to carry a single county.

The vote for solicitorship in the Ninth indicial district is close, but the latest reports indicate the election of W. A. Barber, the Democratic candidate, over Thomas Settle, rep., by about 125 majority.

In Forsyth the Democrats elected W. B. Stafford clerk of the Superior Court over C. S. Hansen, rep., who has held the office for iffeen years. J. F. Griffith, Democratic candidate for treasurer, was also elected.

Reports from the counties in the Piedmont section are that Stokes went Democratic by a small majority, and Surry Democratic by increased vote. Yadkin went 250 Republican; Davie, 150 Republican; and Davidson is Democratic by a small majority.

What Foreign Papers Have to Say of the Result.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—The newspapers print pretty full accounts of the results on yesterding tornal treatment of the subject until the returns are complete. The tone of such comment, for it is better to know a little and know facts, this failure is of no great moment, for it is better to know a little and know it well, that to know a great deal and have it not true.

The planet Mars, says John T. A plain statement, therefore, of our present knowledge drawn, as may be, from the writings of the observers themselves, will not be out of place. While it is to be regretted that absolute conclusions cannot be deduced from our known facts, this failure is of no great moment, for it is better to know a little and know it well, that to know a great deal and have it not true.

THE MAGNIFICENT VICTORY. The more the magnificent Democratic victory in New York city is examined the greater does it seem. The Tammany Hall organization has elected its entire ticket—Hugh J. Grant, mayor; Delancey Nicoll, district atterney; John H. V. Arnold, president of the Board of Aldermen; L. A. Geigerch, county clerk; John J. Gorman, sheriff and all the others, by average majorities of 23,000. The fusion ticket was universally snowed under. It involves no disrespect to the ministers of religion who were active in the late canvass to say that this ought to be their last appearance on

CLEVELAND'S POPULARITY.

The Democrats carried every Congressional district in the city. In the State Congressional districts sixteen Republicans and eighteen Democratic members were elected—a Republican loss of three. Mr. Cleveland's friends claim that the Democratic gains everywhere show that the tariff alone was the main issue in the election, and that Cleveland still remains in undisputed power with the masses. puted power with the mauses. THE NEW BALLOT LAW. A remarkable degree of success attended the first trial of the new ballot law in this city. In almost every district there was a smoothness in the workings of the law that surprised even its best friends. Thirty thousand registered New York voters failed to record their choice for the mayor of this great city yesterday.

New Jersey returns now indicate that the Democrats have elected five of the seven Congressmen, a gain of two—one in the Fifth and one in the Sixth district. The Democrats also elected senators in four out of the eight counties, gaining control of the state Senate by a majority of one. The House will be Democratic next year again by the same majority as last year.

The City of New York beat the Teutonic in to-day. Robert T. Lincoln, the American Minister to Great Britain, came on her with the body of his son, Abraham, who died abroad, and he escorts Mrs. John C. Calhoun. The husband of the latter was ready to leave London, but business interferred with his return. Mr. Lincoln will return to London in January.
